Operational

Dropping of CAUTERY 8

REF: MOB-A-8685

1 December 1951

1. Around the middle of October, CAUTERY 8 reported that he believed he was being watched by the "NKVD", not because he was suspected of passing us information, but rather because he had a son living in the West.

2. On 4 November, CAUTERY 8 arrived in Berlin with his wife and stated that he felt he must flee to avoid arrest. He asked to be flown to Frankfurt/Main where his son lives. Consequently, on the following weekend, we sent him and his wife off. No further settlement was necessary in dropping CAUTERY 8.
